THE

BULL

1963

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY
CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

FOREWORD

As the scroll of the future unrolls before us we can never forget to pay tribute to our dear Alma Mater, Johnson C. Smith University. It has been here that we have been strengthened to meet tomorrow's world.

Through sacrifices and sincere efforts to achieve perfection in our selected vocations, we may help solve some of the problems of the world of today and tomorrow.

This yearbook will, as we view the unrolling of the scroll of the future, help us to relive the memorable days spent at our dear Alma Mater.

DEDICATION . . .

MR. JAMES R. LAW

To one whose sincerity of purpose, dedication to work, and attitude toward his fellowman has given inspiration to many—it is to one who has served the Johnson C. Smith University family well that we dedicate this Bull.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Rufus P. Perry

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our task here is to train free men and women in a free society to the end that they may take their places in that society, possessed of a high degree of civic consciousness, able to respond to the challenges of leadership, and equipped to lead the Good Life. Thus, Johnson C. Smith University is a place, an atmosphere and a tradition in Christian higher education. We want it to remain a place where the freedom to teach and the freedom to learn are carefully maintained.

Let us therefore in our ninety-sixth year renew our pledge to grow stronger in intellectual achievement and in moral atmosphere.
